OUR ORGANIZATION:

Founded in 1914 as the American Institute of Graphic Arts, AIGA is now known simply as “AIGA, the professional association for design.” In 1989, the Arizona chapter was formed to serve the entire community of professionals across the state. AIGA Arizona’s mission is to nurture creative curiosity and use programming, resources and mentorship to empower the voices in our community to create a lasting impact. We recognize diversity through professional backgrounds, years of practice, areas of professional experience, economic level, cultural background, age, ethnicity, place of origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, and cognitive and physical abilities.

AIGA is the profession’s oldest and largest professional membership organization for design—with more than 70 chapters and more than 18,000 members—we build programming to help improve design ability. We connect with complementary disciplines of creativity and expression. We prioritize social impact. And we promote community excellence. We provide resources and access to all creative professionals within our state and make sure that underrepresented communities have a seat at our table. Because to us, it’s not about where you came from. Or what awards you’ve won. It’s about using creativity to make a difference exactly where you are.
